More information on this event and how you can participate will be coming out soon!

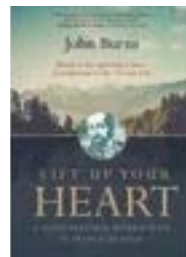

Calling all St John's Alumni!

We are forming an Alumni Directory for the school and parish. Our goal is to network amongst each other professionally and plan some alumni events next year! We are missing information from 1975 back to 1950.

Please drop off any yearbook or class photos you have from those years at the school office.

We are also looking for contact information; name, class year, phone and email for our Directory. It would be greatly appreciated!

Thank you!

4th Meditation: On God's Blessings from St Francis DeSales

"No, Lord, nevermore, with the help of your grace, no, nevermore will I abandon myself to sin. Alas, I have loved it too much. I detest it and I embrace you, the Father of mercy. In you I wish to live and die. Place yourself in the presence of God. Ask him to inspire you"

Everyone is invited to come Monday evening at 6:30 as we discuss this 3rd meditation in our 10 part journey to grow in holiness and peace. Extra books are on the table by the school bulletin board.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Anyone who has a relationship with a child-parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, special friends-know the power of love it is possible to feel for another. It is not that the child is incapable of doing wrong; we know they can all will. Rather, their mistakes do not change our love for them. In fact, love makes us want what is best for them. Often, we can see their potential with greater perspective than they themselves can. They're the apple of our eye. We are the apple of God's eye, beloved children of our Lord. God knows (God really knows) that we can and will fail. We fall short of the potential that God is certain we have. Yet God does not cease to love us and to call us to live as God's own in the world.

HIDDEN IN THE SHADOW OF GOD'S WINGS

Certain that we are held closely by God frees us to live the challenge of the gospel, to give our lives for the sake of others. We will be tempted to take the easy route and ignore the voice of the Lord, listening instead to the call of wealth, power, acceptance, status, and earthly security. Today's reading reminds us that we can face temptation, secure that we are hidden in the shadow of God's wings strengthened and guarded from evil by our Lord Jesus Christ. What challenging thing are you called to do today as a follower of Jesus? About what must you take a stand for? What might be the consequences of discipleship at this time in your life. "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and the endurance of Christ."

My steps have been steadfast in your paths, my feet have not faltered. I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God.

-Psalm 17:56a

Special Announcements

Please note that we have installed cameras in the church for the safety of all of our parishioners. We, and God, are watching!

When receiving Communion, please consume the host in front of the altar and do not carry it back to your seat.

Voters this November will be asked whether or not they support the “right” to abortion for all nine months, without any restrictions or limitations, being written into our state constitution. The California bishops have made defeating Prop 1 our number one priority for this year, and we ask every Catholic in the state to become educated on this dangerous bill, encourage others to oppose it, and support the “No on Prop 1 Campaign” with your prayer, fasting and financial contributions.
