UPDATES FROM FR SEAN:

Fr Sean is now back in the Holy Land attending a sabbatical program in scripture at the Tantur Ecumenical Institute sponsored by Notre Dame. We will not hear much from him until he completes this program! We pray for his health and well being as he experiences this journey.

Do you still have your blessed palm branches from Palm Sunday 2022?

It has been a longstanding custom to burn the palms from Palm Sunday to produce the ashes for Ash Wednesday. We would like to bring that tradition here to St. Johns. If you happen to have your blessed palm branches from last year please bring them into church or the rectory office. We will have daily mass at 6:00pm on Tuesday February 21, Shrove Tuesday, and we will burn the palm branches in preparation for Ash Wednesday.

SAINT JOHN
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

St. John's School Corner

We begin Catholic Schools week today with our Family Mass. The lectors on Sunday are students from St Johns School. The school choir is once again gracing us with their beautiful voices.

Following mass there is a Student Art Exhibit in the gym for everyone to enjoy! Students in the K - 6th grades will have one piece displayed in our art show. Please join us for coffee and donuts.

St John's Alumni

We are working diligently on our Alumni database. We now have an email address for you to send your contact information to! Please reach out to us at alumni@sishbg.org and let us know who and where you are!

One Big Night in Havana!

We are looking forward to another fun and successful evening celebrating together and raising money for our wonderful St. John School!

The Blessed Community

We turn to the first action of Jesus' public ministry described by Matthew - Jesus preaching to the crowds in what we call the Sermon on the Mount.

The Sermon begins with today's Gospel passage, the Beatitudes. Having just called his first disciples to form a community, Jesus begins to spell out what this community is all about. The Beatitudes lay the foundation, describing the primary values and practices, and the core identity of this community.

Jesus tells his followers, first and foremost, that they are blessed by God. The community will reveal its blessed character through its humility, meekness, and hunger for justice. Knowing they are loved as God's children, they will have open and pure hearts, free to be merciful, and they will be able to endure suffering gracefully. Listening anew to the Beatitudes, we remember how far we fall short of Jesus' vision. But we know God has gathered us, and continues to transform us, to receive the fullness of blessing.

Letters from Heaven

Start with the letter in the shaded square. Draw a path from letter to letter to complete the Biblical statement. Move one square at a time, up, down, right, left and diagonally until all letters are used once. Ignore any black squares.

Jesus said,
 "Blessed are they who mourn, for they ..."
